Dear Nora:

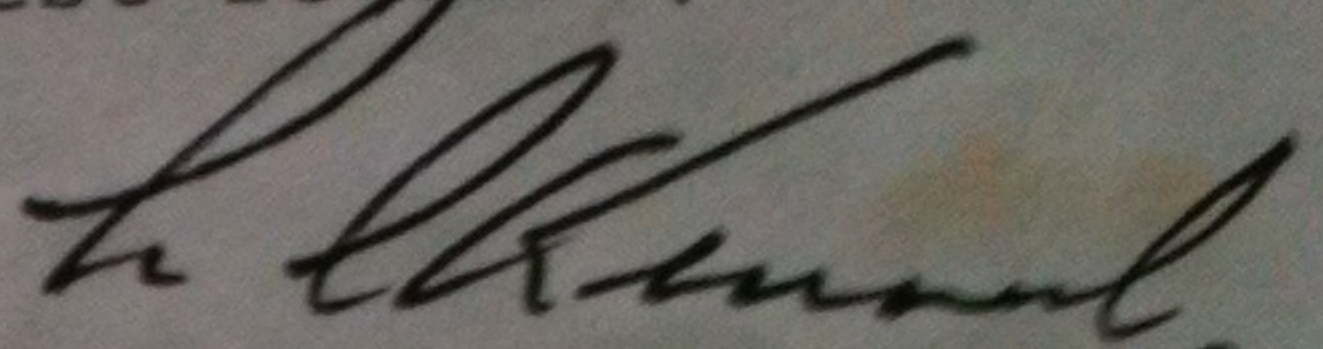

Having just returned from Mexico, I wanted to take a moment to thank you for all your invaluable assistance with my trip.

I am most grateful for the time you so generously spent with me and for your insightful expertise. The visit went extremely well -- in Mexico City, in Oaxaca, in Monterrey and in Ciudad Juarez -- and much of the credit goes to your superb guidance.

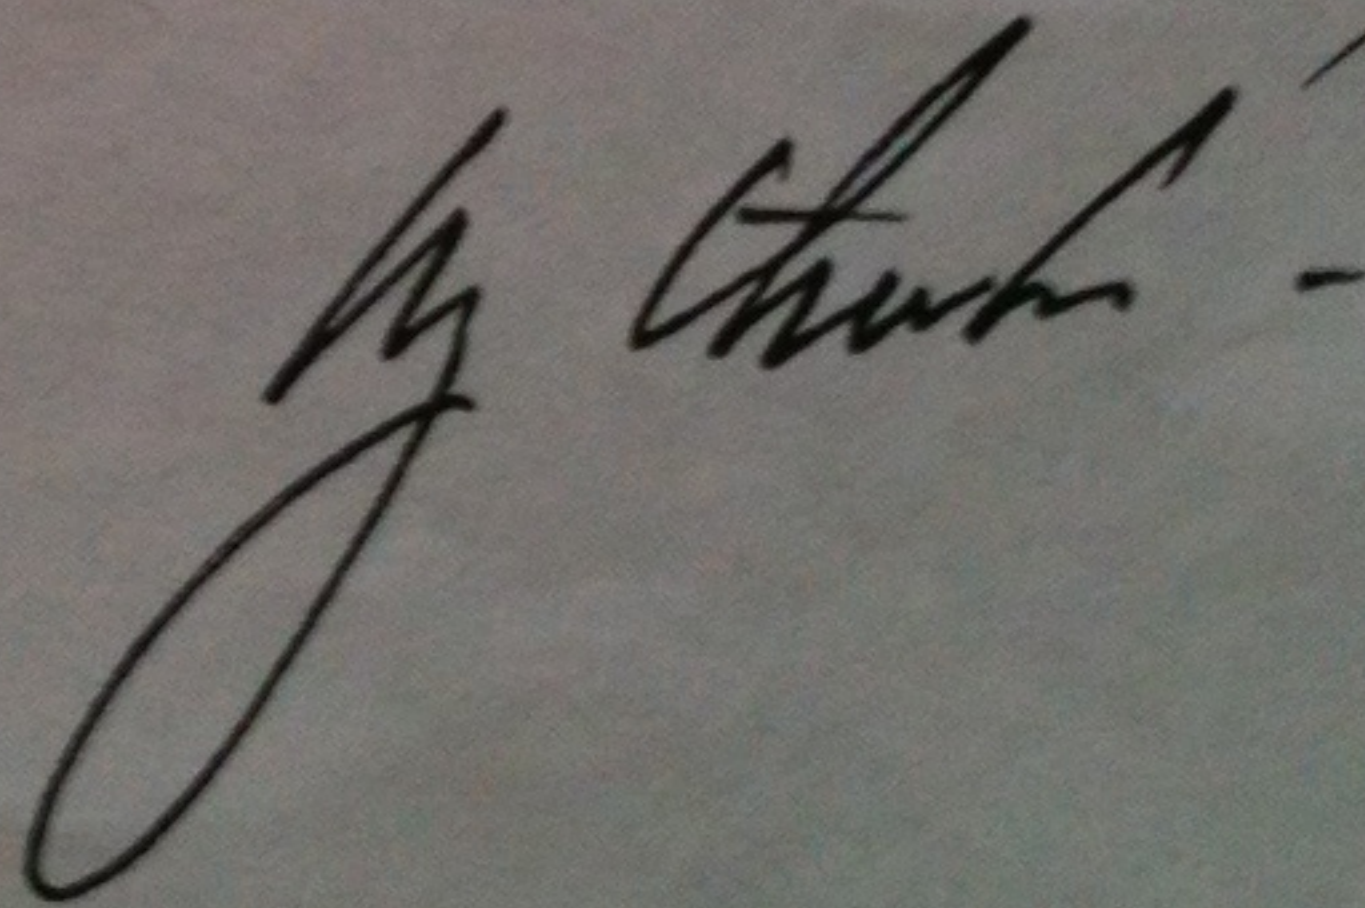

This is clearly an exciting time in Mexico and I have returned with a deeper understanding of Mexico, her people and the challenges she faces. I look forward to developing new avenues to deepen and improve the relationship between the United States and Mexico.

Again, my many thanks. Enclosed please find a copy of the speech I delivered in Mexico City. I hope you will continue to keep in touch with me on any further thoughts you might have.

With best regards,
